Name H. G. Dubose, 1st Supt.

Headquarters Comstock

In what part of the State is he well known?

Southwest Tex
say, in following Counties: Nueces, Duval, Comstock, Starr, Webb, Encinal, Dimmit, Morrison, La Salle, Frio, Bexar & Val Verde.

Disposition (bright, dull, quiet, boisterous, lazy, industrious)?

Bright, talkative, fairly industrious, good humored, rather fine appearance makes friends wherever he goes especially with stockmen.
Is he of tried courage?
Courage tried and considered good.

Character of intelligence?

What particular work is he fitted for? Good man to locate criminals, splendid on getting information Good man to take charge of work to cooperate with other officers.

Is he a good detective?

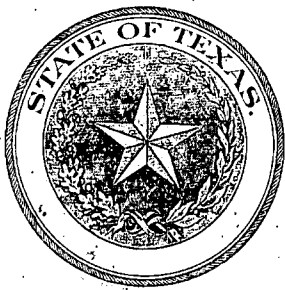

would not like to recommend him for secret service detection work, yet he is of sufficient intelligence to be liable to succeed even without a special turn for the work.

How long in service?

In service about three years.

Any other characteristics?

Hard worker, never tiring when on trail of criminal, quick to get off on pursuit of fugitive & quick to act sometimes talks little too much and is not at all times careful enough to tell things just exactly straight when talking in a general way.
Will sometimes relate an occurrence and the wrong impression will be left when if he is questioned closely and drawn out on the details, the occurrence in question would sometimes look differently from the way he tells it & the impression he leaves, yet with this little fault he is an all round good officer if no harm I am proud.
